

What do some of the terms mean?

Event Categories include:

- Clinical – clinical events with or without patients included
 - Direct events are patient consultations (the patient is present)
 - Indirect events are patient case conferencing activities (the patient is not present)
- Educational – education activity supported over the network
- Administrative – meeting activity

System Role:

- Hosted site (H) identifies the patient location in a clinical event
- Participated site (P) identifies the consultant location in a clinical event

Product Name:

- “Video Conferencing – Personal” identifies PCVC-based activity
 - OTNinvite is a subset of PCVC activity, utilizing the OTNinvite functionality
- “Video Conferencing – Studio” identifies Room Based Systems

Event Type Name:

- Also known as Therapeutic Area of Care (TAC), this field identifies the specialty of focus for the event.

Org/Site:

- This reflects our account structure.
 - Org is the highest level of membership (organization).
 - An organization can have multiple sites, which includes physical locations as well as one Virtual (to consolidate PCVC systems).